

Dear Veterans,

I admire the work you do for this world. How you have to leave your families just for the good of the world. And how you fight for the country. I want to say thank you for everything you have done for me and this country. Have an amazing life and I love you so much.

Thanks,

Sima